

Signing of the Arrangement Letter with the Director of UNESCO-IICBA for the new project

On 6 February, Ambassador NAKAGAWA Tsutomu signed an Arrangement Letter with Dr. Quentin Wodon, Director of at the UNESCO-IICBA, office for the project 'Empowering Female Teachers and School Leaders in Crisis Situations through Integrating Mobile-based Learning in the Pan African Virtual and Electronic University (PAVEU) Initiative (Target countries: Algeria, Cameroon, Kenya, Nigeria, South Sudan)', we signed an arrangement letter with Dr. Quentin Wodon, Director of UNESCO-IICBA. In addition to expressing his gratitude for the support from Japan, Dr. Wodon also emphasized the needs to strengthen relations with Japan in terms of education support in Africa.

Group Photo